FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASERock County First Releases Its 2023 Spring Election Endorsements

Rock County, WI (March 16, 2023) - Ahead of the most important Spring election, Rock County First Political has released its 2023 endorsements of local candidates seeking election. Each candidate running for local office, across the county, received a letter and questionnaire to complete should they wish to seek endorsement. RCF is proud to announce the endorsement of the following candidates for offices throughout Rock County:

- Brian Nichols, Beloit School Board
- Ryan McDonough, Beloit School Board
- Tracy Hannah, Milton School Board
- Ed Snow, Milton School Board
- Heather Miller, Janesville City Council
- Michael Jackson, Janesville City Council
- Spencer Zimmerman, Janesville City Council
- Marisa Voelkel, Town of Janesville Chairman
- Jeff Bovee, Town of Newark Board Supervisor
- Kevin Kangas, Town of Newark Board Supervisor
- Thomas Kinkel, Town of Harmony Board Supervisor
- Gary Selck, Village of Footville President
- Kendall Schneider, Town of Union Chairman

"In our second year of endorsements, I am thrilled to see the excitement from many candidates in seeking our endorsement. It's a true testament to the work we've been doing and how far we've come in such a short time," said Leslie Hubert, Chair of RCF Political Fund and Vice President of Rock County First, Inc.

In addition, Rock County First is stepping outside the county boundaries to endorse a candidate for the Supreme Court race. As the sole focus and mission of RCF is to empower and engage citizens to be involved in and hold accountable their local officials, the RCF Board of Directors believes the Supreme Court race will have far reaching consequences for local governments should the wrong candidate win. Therefore, Rock County First Political endorses Justice Daniel Kelly for the Supreme Court of Wisconsin. Justice Kelly has a proven record of adhering to the rule of law, interpreting the laws as they are, and not legislating from the bench. Justice Kelly is the best choice for voters this Spring.

Election Day is April 4, 2023. Early voting begins March 21. To see our list of endorsed candidates, and hear our radio ads, and more, visit www.rockcountyfirst.com/voterguide.
